

EDUCATION SERVICES

ILLINOIS HISTORIC PRESERVATION AGENCY

The Education Services Program assists teachers and their students in researching and studying local and state history.

ILLINOIS HISTORY EXPO 2010

The Illinois History Expo is an annual statewide competition that gives junior high and high school students (grades 6-12) an opportunity to display their knowledge on a topic through various history-related projects pertaining to Illinois.

Illinois Regional History Expos are held in the early spring at college campuses throughout Illinois. Projects and papers judged to be superior advance to the statewide Illinois History Expo held in Springfield May 6, 2010. Some projects will be selected to represent Illinois at the University of Maryland in mid-June during the National History Day competition.

Students are invited to enter projects in any of these categories: research papers, exhibits, media, and performances.

For additional information, call the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency Office of Education Services at 217-782-2981, FAX 217-785-7937. email: pete.harbison@illinois.gov

Superior papers and projects will be invited to the Illinois History Expo in Springfield on May 6, 2010. Sponsored by the Illinois Historic Preservation Agency, 1 Old State Capitol Plaza, Springfield, Illinois 62701
